

Fall Mondial Tea Tasting

As fine wine is to the West, Puer tea is to Asia Come find out why

Join us on Oct 6 th 3:00 PM
at the Maurer residence 352 Back O Beyond Circle, Sedona

Traditionally, the serving of fine teas was a cultural art to promote health. A pathway to inspire deeper awareness within an individual and to bring forth well-being and personal happiness.

Kenneth Cannata, Tea Master will lead us on this journey of discovery

He will strive to search out the finest teas to awaken all your senses, and so aspire to present the possibility for education, refinement, and happiness.

The name of the tea is "Puer" in Chinese - or in English "Fermented" Tea. There are two types we will be appreciating- "Sheng" puer or "Green" Puer-- and also "Shou" or "Ripe" puer. These are known as the "king" of teas in Asia because of their increasing in therapeutic and economic value with time.

You will enjoy both Green "sheng" and Ripe "shou" puer tea types. There will be both younger vintages and older vintages for tasting- with one special treat- a 1998 World Famous Tea "Evening Fragrance Jade"

The teas will be available for purchase costing: $40 to $1000 in the case of the "Evening Fragrance Jade"

Delectable artisanal chocolates will temp your palate, along with a Bubbly Toast at the end of the event

This event is limited to 30 people - Cost $42 – Please RSVP - Send payment to Jim Pease
